

Erasmus Days

Labour Mobility & Career Focus

Overview:

Organizing Erasmus Days is a straightforward activity that leverages the experiences of past participants. Older students share their Erasmus+ experiences with peers through storytelling and Q&A booths.

Description of the practice

An interactive and informative event held at the beginning of the academic year in VET schools. Involving older students who have previously participated in the Erasmus program sharing their experiences with their peers. Q&A sessions about the program, logistics and the benefits of participation. Informational stands to provide detailed guidance on the application process, including deadlines and requirements. During the event, the application process for the upcoming Erasmus cycle is officially opened, encouraging immediate engagement and participation.

Why is this approach useful?

It engages students by showcasing tangible benefits of EU citizenship and mobility through relatable peer experiences. It inspires and informs students about opportunities available under the Erasmus program, fostering a culture of international learning.

How to make this approach successful?

Plan early to align with the opening of new Erasmus applications. Involve older students to share their experiences. Promote and prepare presentations, Q&A sessions and application guidance.

Target group:

Third and fourth year students

Duration of the activity:

2-3 hours

Transferability Tip:

Align with the official Erasmus Days dates each October.

Why is it a quick win?

- Event leverages the experiences of past participants, requires minimal resources. Effective peer-to-peer sharing.
- Students learn application procedures, and get inspired to apply for Erasmus opportunities.
